PM cares, petrol duty...

Even a few developed countries couldn't escape some shortages or disruptions, the Finance Minister added. The government is committed to ensuring that prices of essential items are kept under control, she committed to ensuring that prices of the sessential items are kept under control, she added.

Also, keeping the deprived sections in mind, the government will give RS 200 per cylinder subsidy to Ulijivala Yojana beneficiaries for 12 cyfinders in a year help ease some of the burden arising from cooking gas rates rising to record levels. This will have a revenue implication of around Rs 6, 100 core a year.
The cut in tule taxes is likely to come as a boost to users of petrol/diesel driven vehicles, manufacturers and farmers. High fuel prices have been hurting the margins of corporates as well as farmers, who contribute a significant drunk to the conomy. This, in turn, will augur well for sustained GDP (gross domestic product) growth.

Spiking global oil prices have pushed up the retail prices of petrol and diesel to a record high in India, which is the world's third-biggest oil importer and consumer and ships in about 85% of its oil needs
from overseas.

Further, the government has reduced the customs duty on raw materials and intermediaries for plastic products where the country's import dependence is high. It will result in reduction of cost of final products. A notification with specific details on all these mention moves will be issued by the Centre within the next hours.

The boy's father, Dilip Mishra, lodged a complaint at the Manpada police station. Police have registered a case under Motor Vehicle Act and Sub-Inspector K K Gangurde is investigating the case. Dilip Mishra was unavailable for comment despite several attempts.

Regular users of the Savlaram Maharaj Sports Complex are now questioning why the security guards at the sports complex do not stop motorists, as they are not allowed to drive in the stadium. It is learn that during the day, many novice car drivers come to this spot for driving practice. Sportspensor from Dombbiri and the surrounding areas say that for years now, they have been demanding that drivers not be allowed to enter the Savlaram Stadium but the KDMC authorities have ignored their demand all this while.

bringing it at par with that six to seven years ago, would provide real relief to the people. Sena's ally NCP claimed Centre's decision was a case of being better late than never. NCP spokesman Clyde Crasto said, "After squeezing the common man with fuel price hile for days, the Centre now decides to give relief.

"It took more from us but is now making the duty cut appear like a big relief, is this relief or a breather before prices are hiked again?" he asked. Shiv Sena MP Priyanka Chaturvedi taunted, "Forced to bow to demand of the people. The arrogance of those in power will never withstand the anger of the people."
